New terroirs, new projects, prestigious places and great winemakers in the spotlight...
Discover the novelties of this 10th edition !

ANJOU NOIR, ANJOU BLANC... AND SINCE 2020 BOURGUEIL : THE PAULÉE KEEPS GROWING

This year, this group of organic winemakers will meet in the exceptional setting of the Château de Saumur to celebrate the great terroirs of the historic province of Anjou. The objective of the Paulée d'Anjou remains the same: to promote the terroirs, the history and the wines of Anjou by making people discover its landscapes, its great single-variety wines, its heritage and the collective spirit of winegrowers practicing a craft viticulture, respectful of the environment.

NEW TERROIRS, NEW PROJECTS, PRESTIGIOUS PLACES AND GREAT WINEGROWERS IN THE SPOTLIGHT...

The 2022 edition is aimed at all wine professionals who love the Loire and are eager to better understand the history, geology and cultivation methods of one of its historical regions: Anjou. During this day, the professionals will be able to taste the 100% organic wines of the more than 90 participating estates, but also to discover the last wild river of Europe and the highlights of the saumurois vineyard. For the first time, the Paulée winemakers will organize a conference-debate, with speakers coming from the worlds of culture, wine and gastronomy, thus embodying all the dimensions of the Paulée d'Anjou.

Discover, in broad outline, the program of this 10th edition:

- During the day, from 10:00 am - Château de Saumur
 - Tasting of the cuvées proposed by more than 90 estates
 - At 10:30 am : Round table discussion " The renaissance of Anjou wines " animated by Alexandre Lazareff
 - With the participation of Erik Orsenna, Andrew Jefford, and Pascaline Lepeltier, among others...
 - Visit of the hillsides of Parnay, the Clos d'Entre les Murs, etc.
 - Guided boat tour on the Loire
 - Lunch in Saumur
- In the evening, from 7:30pm - Manège des Ecuyers
 - Gala dinner prepared by 3 chefs from Angers: Pascal Favre d'Anne, David Guitton and Mickaël Pihours
 - With a focus on organic and local products
 - Tasting of old vintages at the winemakers' table

*Two projects led by the members of the Paulée will also be unveiled in exclusivity: a map of terroirs of the Anjou region and the modern reinterpretation of the "Angevin pipe", the signature barrel of the Anjou region, with its 480L format... not to be missed!

OUR MEDIA PARTNER

The Revue du Vin de France, a reference magazine in the world of the French wine press, constantly in the "field" alongside those who make wine, will accompany this day (through videos, interviews, etc.).

The Anjou artist Aliénor Ouvrard will exhibit her illustrations during the Paulée d'Anjou.

A WRITER TO CELEBRATE THE CULTURAL DIMENSION OF ANJOU WINE : ERIK ORSENNA

Starting with this edition, the winegrowers wanted each Paulée to be patroned by a personality from the world of arts. Erik Orsenna, writer, member of the Académie Française and the Académie du vin de France will be the patron of this 10th edition.

The members of the Paulée d'Anjou are keen to highlight the history and culture that make up their wine heritage. A conference-debate will attempt to unveil the mysteries of Anjou wine, by approaching it as a "product of civilization".

A GUEST OF HONOR IN LOVE WITH FRANCE: ANDREW JEFFORD

This year, the Paulée is inviting a Guest of Honor, a connoisseur of French wines who was one of the first to write about the renaissance of Anjou: Andrew Jefford. A regular writer and columnist for Decanter and The World Of Fine Wine, Andrew Jefford is also a faculty advisor to the Wine Scholar Guild. He is also one of the four co-chairs of the Decanter World Wine Awards, the world's largest wine competition. A tireless traveler, Andrew has settled in the Languedoc region of France, where he has lived since 2010.

WHITE VINES, BLACK VINES: THE TWO "STAR" GRAPE VARIETIES OF THE LOIRE IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Thanks to its large perimeter covering three regions (represented almost equally), the Paulée d'Anjou will honor its great single-varietal wines, Chenin Blanc and Cabernet Franc: the opportunity for guests to discover the incredible mosaic of Anjou's terroirs through these two emblematic grape varieties of the Loire.

AN EXCEPTIONAL DINNER IN A MYTHICAL PLACE

At the end of the day, the gastronomic festivities will be held in the Manège des Ecuyers, within the prestigious Ecole de la Cavalerie. Three chefs from Anjou, Pascal Favre d'Anne, David Guitton and Mickaël Pihours, will highlight the local organic products, for a gala dinner placed under the sign of conviviality and sharing.

THE PAULÉE D'ANJOU : A COLLECTIVE DYNAMIC TO PROMOTE A THOUSAND-YEAR-OLD WINE REGION

The Paulée d'Anjou, a collective adventure started in 2012 by the winemakers of Anjou Noir wishing to promote their schist terroirs, has gradually opened to all the great terroirs of Anjou. As a result of this dynamic, the 2019 edition brought together for the first time the schists of the Anjou Noir and the limestones of the Anjou Blanc. This collective and solidary impulse continued in 2020 with the addition of the winegrowers of Bourgueil and St-Nicolas-de-Bourgueil! In order to concretely seal their commitment, the winegrowers of the collective have formalized a charter that defines their values, their missions and their ethics.

The Paulée members are thus committed to promoting :

- All the richness of Anjou: its landscapes and biodiversity, its wines coming from unique and inimitable terroirs, its thousand-year-old history, its heritage of landmark buildings, its gastronomy, its culture and artists, etc.
- A responsible and sustainable viticulture method, of which the region was one of the pioneers, presenting only certified vintages or those in the process of being certified organic or biodynamic.
- Humanistic values, so often embodied by the winegrowers of the Loire Valley: open-mindedness and temperance, inter-generational mutual aid favoring the installation of young talents, etc.

An event of international dimension, the Paulée d'Anjou attracts each year more and more winemakers willing to join this ambitious collective dynamic. For the 2022 edition, more than 90 estates, from the "great figures" to the "young guard" freshly installed, invite you to join them for this moment of conviviality, culture and sharing.
